

Jeddah: May 16, 2009

PRESS RELEASE

In his efforts to extend free medical facilities to all the deserving Pakistani community in the western region, the Consul General of Pakistan, Mr. Zaigham Uddin Azam deputed Vice Consul (Welfare) Mr. Muhammad Nasrullah Khan Watto, to inaugurate a free medical camp at Al-Baha yesterday.

The free medical camp organized by the wealthy community members at Al-Baha and was conducted by 05 (five) local doctors who provided free medical treatment and free medicines to the deserving Pakistanis. The medical camp was arranged at the site where consular services were provided to the community

It may be mentioned that in 10 out of the 11 stations, in the western region under the jurisdiction of the Consulate General, free medical facilities are being provided to the needy Pakistanis, who could not afford heavy cost of treatment.